Eligibility/Rules

- Applicants must be full-time residents of Wisconsin at any stage in their career beyond the undergraduate level (primary, secondary, and undergraduate students should apply to the Student Composition Contest).
- Applicants may submit one (1) composition for 1-5 performers.
- Composers are welcome to provide their own performers. If requested, WAC will do its best to arrange Lawrence University faculty or advanced student musicians for compositions up to small chamber ensembles (1-5 performers).
- Compositions involving electronics, including purely electronic works, are permitted.
- Submissions must be original compositions. Arrangements and transcriptions are not accepted.
- Works under 15 minutes in duration are preferred.
- Works will be selected by the conference hosts. Selection decisions will be final.

Submission Requirements

- Submissions must be received by Monday, November 2nd 2026.
- All materials must be submitted using this application form.
- Submit one musical score as a PDF. Submissions do not need to be submitted anonymously.
- Submit one MP3 recording of live musicians or computer realization.
- Composers must agree to attend the WAC New Music Festival at Lawrence University on Sunday, April 4th 2027 (afternoon) and join WAC for one year ($25 dues) if their work is selected. The specific concert time is TBD.
